(f) An attorney shall file a praecipe for entry of appearance with the Clerk of Judicial Records before appearing on behalf of a litigant. The entry of an appearance shall continue in effect for all aspects of the custody action until withdrawn pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1012 or Pa. R.C.P. 1930.8.

(g) All applications for continuance shall be made by the attorney of record or self-represented litigant using the Family Court Division Application for Continuance form and presented to Family Court Administration. A party dissatisfied with the continuance decision of a hearing officer or the family court administrator may appeal the decision to the assigned judge, or if no judge is assigned, to the family court motions judge.

Rule 1915.4-1 Alternative Hearing Procedures for Partial Custody Actions.

- (a) All claims for partial custody shall be conducted in accordance with Pa. R.C.P. 1915.4-2.

Rule 1915.4–2 Partial Custody. Office Conference. Hearing Record. Exceptions. Order.

- (a) Office Conference

- (5) The office conference is a non-record proceeding.

- (b) Hearing

(1) If the moving party fails to appear for the hearing, the hearing officer shall dismiss the pleading. If the non-moving party fails to appear for the hearing, the hearing officer shall proceed with the hearing.

(2) Information on the procedure for filing exceptions and the costs associated therewith shall be sent with the proposed order and the report of hearing officer to counsel of record and to each party. Upon the filing of exceptions, Family Court Administration shall issue an order scheduling the matter for argument within 45 days and directing the party filing exceptions to obtain a hearing transcript.

- (c) Participation in conference and hearing

(1) Parties shall attend the conference and hearing. Children shall not attend unless directed to do so by the hearing officer sua sponte or upon written request of either party. A request to participate by telephone shall be made in writing to the assigned hearing officer and shall only be granted upon good cause shown.

Rule 1915.4-3 Primary Custody. Non-Record Proceedings. Trial.

(c) If an agreement regarding legal custody or primary or shared physical custody is not reached at the conference, the hearing officer shall prepare a memorandum for the court and parties setting forth relevant information about the parties and a summary of the information presented at the conference.

Rule 1915.7 Consent Order.

- (a) A written agreement for custody may be presented to Family Court Administration for a consent order under this Rule.

Rule 1915.8 Physical and Mental Examination of Persons.

(e) A party to a custody action shall not disclose the contents of an expert report prepared pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1915.8, including home study evaluations and physical, mental, drug and/or alcohol evaluations, to anyone except his/her attorney, another party, or an expert consultant. Disclosure to an unauthorized person, including the child who is the subject of the action, may result in sanctions. An attorney who provides such a report to a party whom he represents, or the custody hearing officer who provides such a report to an unrepresented party, shall advise the party in writing of the limits on disclosure imposed by this rule.

(f) All home study evaluations and physical, mental, drug and/or alcohol evaluations filed with the court shall be sealed by the Clerk of Judicial Records and shall be unsealed only by an order of court.

Rule 1915.12 Civil Contempt for Disobedience of Custody Order.

(a) Prior to filing a petition for civil contempt, the moving party shall obtain a scheduling order from Family Court Administration which shall direct the appearance of the parties for office conference at Room 325, Lehigh County Courthouse, 455 W. Hamilton St ., Allentown, PA 18101.

(b) Parties shall attend the conference; children shall not attend unless directed to do so by the hearing officer sua sponte or upon written request of either party. A request to participate by telephone shall be made in writing to the assigned hearing officer and shall only be granted upon good cause shown.

(c) If the contempt matter is not resolved at the conference, it shall be scheduled for a hearing before a judge.

Rule 1915.13 Special Relief.

(a) A petition for special relief requires the simultaneous filing of either 1) a complaint for custody when the petition seeks to establish custody or 2) a petition for modification when the petition seeks to change an existing custody order. The complaint or petition for modification shall be scheduled in the normal course of operations.

(b) A party seeking special relief may present a petition to Family Court Administration for scheduling or present a petition pursuant to Lehigh County Rules of Civil Procedure.

(c) The party seeking relief shall serve the filed petition and file proof of service prior to the hearing in accordance with Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure.

(d) Relief granted without notice of hearing to the opposing party or parties shall be an interim order. The court shall direct the scheduling of a hearing after notice is provided to the opposing party.

Rule 1915.17 Relocation.

(e) Prior to filing a Petition to Confirm Relocation pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1915.17(e), the moving party shall obtain a date and time for hearing from Family Court Administration.

(f) Any party requesting a hearing as set forth in Pa. R.C.P. 1915.17 (f), (g), or (h) shall, in addition to the requirements of the Rule, file a Request for Relocation Hearing on forms provided by Family Court Administration. The parties shall initially be directed to appear for conference before a custody hearing officer.

Actions for Divorce / Annulment Effective Aug. 17, 2015

Rule 1920.2 Venue.

(d) A party who enters an appearance in order to file Preliminary Objections to venue in an action for divorce or annulment shall not be deemed to be participating in the proceedings for purposes of Pa. R.C.P. 1920.2(a)(2)(ii).

Rule 1920.31 Joinder of Related Claims. Child and Spousal Support.

Alimony. Alimony Pendente Lite. Counsel Fees. Expenses.

(a)(3) Where a claim for spousal support and/or alimony pendente lite is made in a complaint for divorce or annulment or in a counterclaim thereto, the party filing a pleading containing such a claim shall:

(i) file at the Domestic Relations Section a time-stamped copy of the pleading and proof of service thereof, a praecipe for conference, and the Domestic Relations data sheet, and

(ii) serve a copy of the request for conference on the opposing party, or if represented, on the attorney of record in the action for divorce or annulment.

(e) The divorce master shall be appointed to consider petitions seeking interim counsel fees and expenses. Such petitions shall be filed with the Clerk of Judicial Records and a time-stamped copy sent to the master.

(1) In addition to the information required to be submitted pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1920.31(a)(1), the petition shall include written estimates as to the amounts requested for interim counsel fees and expenses and the basis for the requests.

(2) All averments contained in such petitions shall be deemed denied. However, the respondent shall have a period of twenty (20) days in which to file an answer, which shall be filed and a time-stamped copy sent to Family Court Administration.

(3) The matter shall be scheduled for a non-record conference with the master. After consideration of the petition, the answer, supporting documentation, and argument, the master shall prepare a recommended Order addressing the petition.

(4) A recommended Order which is not based upon agreement of the parties shall provide for twenty (20) days from the filing, during which time either party may file exceptions and demand a hearing de novo before the Court. A time-stamped copy of exceptions filed shall be provided to Family Court Administration for scheduling.

(f) The master shall be appointed to consider petitions for modification of post-divorce alimony. Such petitions shall be filed with the Clerk of Judicial Records and a time-stamped copy sent to Family Court Administration.

(1) The matter shall be scheduled for conference. If the petition is not resolved during the conference, a record hearing shall be scheduled before the master.

(2) The notes of testimony shall be transcribed and a report shall be generated by the master as soon as administratively possible following the hearing.

(3) Either party may file exceptions to the report of the master within twenty (20) days from the date the report is filed of record.

(4) A time-stamped copy of any such exceptions filed shall be provided to Family Court Administration to schedule for argument before a judge and to set a briefing schedule.

Rule 1920.42 Affidavit and Decree Under § 3301(c) or § 3301(d)(1) of the Divorce Code. Notice of Intention to Request Entry of Divorce Decree in § 3301(c) and § 3301(d)(1)(i) Divorce. Counter-affidavit.

(f) The court record shall be reviewed by court review officers, who shall be practicing attorneys designated by the Court.

Rule 1920.43 Special Relief

(c) A petition for special relief shall be filed with the Clerk of Judicial Records, and a time-stamped copy delivered to Family Court Administration for scheduling. The master may be appointed to consider such petitions.

Rule 1920.51 Hearing by the Court. Appointment of Master. Notice of Hearing.

(f) A Motion for Appointment of a Master as required by Pa. R.C.P. 1920.33 shall be filed with the Clerk of Judicial Records and a time-stamped copy sent to Family Court Administration.

(1) Upon appointment, the master shall schedule an initial conference with counsel for the parties, or with self-represented parties.

(2) At the initial conference, counsel and/or the parties shall supply the master with background information for the case, a list of remaining discovery needs, and suggestions as to an appropriate track for resolving the issues in the case.

(3) Following the initial conference, if appropriate, the master shall prepare a recommended Order directing additional discovery, setting appropriate deadlines and scheduling the matter for further proceedings. Any party dissatisfied with all or any part of a recommended Order may file a written demand for review by the Court pursuant to the remedy and procedure set forth in the Order.

Rule 1920.55-1 Alternative Hearing Procedures for Matters Referred to a Master.

Pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1920.55-1(b), Lehigh County has adopted the procedure set forth in Pa. R.C.P. 1920.55-2 for all divorce/annulment proceedings referred to a master.

Rule 1920.55-2 Master's Report. Notice. Exceptions. Final Decree.

The party filing exceptions shall provide a time-stamped copy to Family Court Administration to schedule argument before a judge and to establish a briefing schedule.

Rule 4009. Court Reporting and Transcripts – Fees and Procedures.

(A) Procedures for requesting a transcript:

- (1) All requests for transcripts shall be set forth on the standardized form, Request for Transcript or Copy Form, available at <http://www.lccpa.org/forms/RequestforTranscript.pdf>
- (2) For an ordinary transcript, the party requesting a full or partial transcript of a trial or other court proceeding shall file the original Request for Transcript Form with the appropriate filing office (i.e., Clerk of Judicial Records – Civil Division, Clerk of Judicial Records – Criminal Division, Orphans’ Court, or the Domestic Relations Section) based upon the specific case type. The requesting party shall also serve copies of the Request for Transcript Form upon:
 - (a) the Judge presiding over the matter; and
 - (b) the Court Reporter
by delivering two (2) copies of the Request for Transcript Form to the Court Administrator’s Office located in Room 614; and
 - (c) opposing counsel or the opposing party, if not represented.
- (3) The Court Reporter shall prepare the transcript upon:
 - (a) the approval of the Presiding Judge; and
 - (b) payment of the deposit by the requesting party to the appropriate filing office in accordance with the order of the Presiding Judge.
- (4) The Court Reporter shall file the transcript and serve the requesting party with a copy of the transcript upon payment of the balance owed by the requesting party to the appropriate filing office in accordance with the order of the Presiding Judge.
- (5) If a party is requesting daily, expedited or same day transcripts, or provisions for secure electronic feed, the request for such transcripts or service shall be filed with the appropriate filing office at least ten (10) days prior to the scheduled proceeding. Copies of the written request shall be delivered in accordance with subsection (2). Such requests will be accommodated only upon approval of the Presiding Judge and the Court Reporter.

(B) Economic hardship

- (1) Pursuant to Pa.R.J.A. 4008(B), a request to waive or reduce transcript fees shall be noted on the Request for Transcript Form and include a fully completed In Forma Pauperis Petition pursuant to Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 240, even if IFP status was previously granted on the case.
- (2) Litigants who have been approved for representation by Legal Aid Services are not required to further prove economic hardship pursuant to section (B)(1) above; however, they must attach to their Request for Transcript Form a letter of certification from Legal Aid Services that the litigant meets financial eligibility and that the matter is under appeal or that the transcript being requested is necessary to advance the current litigation.

(C) Fees – original transcript – requesting party

- (1) The fees payable by the party, other than the Commonwealth or a subdivision thereof, initially requesting the transcript in an electronic format shall be as follows:
 - (a) for an ordinary transcript, $2.50 per page;
 - (b) for an expedited transcript, $3.50 per page, if the Court Reporter is able to accommodate the request and the Presiding Judge approves; and
 - (c) for a daily transcript, $4.50 per page, if the Court Reporter is able to accommodate the request and the Presiding Judge approves; and
 - (d) for same day delivery, $6.50 per page, if the Court Reporter is able to accommodate the request and the Presiding Judge approves.
- (2) When the transcript is prepared in bound paper format, the costs shall be in accordance with paragraph (1) relating to electronic format plus a surcharge of $0.25 per page.

(D) Fees - copies of transcript

A request for a copy of any transcript, made prior to filing the transcript of record, in excess of the copy provided for in section (A)(4) of this Rule, shall be provided according to the following schedule:

- (1) $0.75 per page paper format; and
 - (2) $0.50 per page electronic copy.
- (E) Fees – copies of transcript - previously ordered, transcribed and filed of record

A request for a copy of any transcript previously ordered, transcribed and filed of record shall be provided according to the following schedule:

- (1) $0.75 per page paper format; and
 - (2) $0.50 per page electronic copy.
- (F) Fees - additional costs

The Presiding Judge may impose a reasonable surcharge in cases such as mass tort, medical malpractice, or other unusually complex litigation where there is a need for Court Reporters to significantly expand their dictionary. Such surcharges are at the discretion of the Presiding Judge.

- (G) Fees – secure electronic feed

The Presiding Judge may impose a reasonable surcharge in cases involving a secure electronic feed during the proceeding. Such surcharge is at the discretion of the Presiding Judge.

- (H) Payment of fees

All fees shall be made payable to the “County of Lehigh” and shall be delivered to the appropriate filing office (i.e., Clerk of Judicial Records – Civil Division, Clerk of Judicial Records – Criminal Division, Orphans’ Court, or the Domestic Relations Section) based on the case type. No fees shall be paid directly to the Court Reporter or Transcriptionist.

- (I) Rule as exclusive method to obtain, reproduce, distribute, or copy transcript of portion thereof

No person shall obtain, reproduce, distribute, or copy any transcript or portion thereof except in accordance with this rule.
